An Evening With Abraham Lincoln
November 15th @ 7 p.m. in the UWF Conference Center
Four score and seven years ago, I had an impressive beard. Why, my beard was so impressive that I needed a top hat to go along with it. Ahem. On the occasion of the 150th anniversary of the Gettysburg Address, spend an evening with Lincoln impersonator, Michael Krebs*, nationally-known for his portrayal of our famous-for-more-than-his-beard 16th President. This event is presented as part of the UWF Chautauqua Series, a series organized by our very own Archives Guru and Basement-Dweller, Dean DeBolt

*Daniel Day Lewis had prior engagements like being dreamy.

Muslim Journeys, Lecture and Book Discussion

November 19th @ 6:30 p.m. in the Great Good Place, 2nd Floor of the library
Please join the UWF Libraries for a lecture and open discussion of Maria Rosa Menocal's Ornament of the World: How Muslims, Jews, and Christians Created a Culture of Tolerance in Medieval Spain. Copies of the book are available at the library, but it's not necessary to have read the book to join in on the lecture and discussion!
More information can be found at: <http://libguides.uwf.edu/MuslimJourneys>.

Quiet Places vs. Group Spaces in the Library: Ultimate Fighting Championship!

A quiet sneaky study carrel (a private study room in which you may check out a key for 6 hours at a time at the Circulation Desk) surprises the Great Good Place (a place on the 2nd floor where you may gather and talk) with a karate chop. Quiet Places – 1 Group Spaces – 0

The SMART Boards which are first-come, first served (2 on the first floor and 8 on the second floor!) make the Quiet Floor (4th Floor) dizzy with the technological wizardry made with the special markers you may check out at the Circulation Desk.

Quiet Places – 1 Group Spaces – 1

The Skylab (the lovely computer lab on the fifth floor great for group work) goes and makes up with the comfortable nook you found in the corner of the second floor by bringing it a cup of Starbucks coffee because the Skylab is a lover not a fighter.

Skylab!
